ITEM 3 – DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

We are obligated to disclose any disciplinary event that would be material to you when evaluating Ms. McGrath. We do not have any legal or other disciplinary item to report to you.

ITEM 4 – OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Ms. McGrath is not engaged in any investment-related business or occupation other than with us. She is not engaged in any other business or occupation for compensation that represents 10% or more of her time or income.

ITEM 5 – ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Ms. McGrath does not receive any economic benefit for providing advisory services from anyone other than Vision.

ITEM 6 – SUPERVISION

The following person is responsible for supervising Ms. McGrath's advisory activities:

Clifford M. Yount

Chief Compliance Officer

(503) 731-7309

We have discretionary investment authority over all our clients' account assets. Subject to a client's personal situation and any restrictions the client imposes, our clients' accounts generally hold many of the same securities. Our firm brochure describes our investment process.

We supervise our employees who advise clients, and we monitor the investment advice they give. Our supervision includes weekly meetings, which Ms. McGrath attends, where we discuss all the components of our clients' investment portfolios, the general economic outlook, and how employees should convey that information to clients. In addition, all of Ms. McGrath's meeting notes and client-related emails are saved in our internal computer system, so everyone has access to the advice she gives clients. These notes also allow other employees in the firm to serve Ms. McGrath's clients in the event that Ms. McGrath is unavailable. Mr. Yount reviews Ms. McGrath's notes and emails periodically.

In addition, Mr. Yount regularly reviews account statements for clients Ms. McGrath has primary responsibility for serving to make sure the accounts are invested appropriately. As needed, other Client Relationship Managers, or Portfolio Managers, may also sit in on client meetings with Ms. McGrath.

Ms. McGrath also offers each of the full-service clients she is responsible for serving the opportunity to join her for a quarterly portfolio review in person or by telephone. At that time, she discusses the client's wealth planning, investment objectives and current investment allocation. If changes are needed, Ms. McGrath prepares a new investment advisory questionnaire for that client, which Mr. Yount reviews. Generally, other Client Relationship Managers within the firm are available to meet with Ms. McGrath's clients to conduct this discussion and questionnaire preparation in the event that Ms. McGrath is unavailable.

We have discretionary investment authority over all our clients' account assets. Subject to a client's personal situation and any restrictions the client imposes, our clients' accounts generally hold many of the same securities. Our firm brochure describes our investment process.

We supervise our employees who advise clients, and we monitor the investment advice they give. Our supervision includes weekly meetings, which Mr. Schmidt attends, where we discuss all the components of our clients' investment portfolios, the general economic outlook, and how employees should convey that information to clients. Also, on a weekly basis, our CIO and Portfolio Managers, including Mr. Schmidt, meet to review and discuss current economic and investment trends specifically in relation to our Global Dynamic Strategy, individual U.S. equity stocks, fixed income securities and exchange traded funds (ETFs). In addition, all of Mr. Schmidt's meeting notes and client-related emails are saved in our internal computer system, so everyone has access to the advice he may give clients. Mr. Yount reviews Mr. Schmidt's notes and emails periodically.

In addition, Mr. Yount regularly reviews account statements for any clients Mr. Schmidt may have primary responsibility for serving to make sure the accounts are invested in accordance with those clients' current investment objectives.
